APPENDIX A: SHORT-TERM MINISTRY EXPECTATIONS

Short-term ministry team members supported by the church are expected to...

1. Pray and prepare for the STM to the best of their ability.
2. Raise financial and prayer support for the STM diligently.
3. Travel to and from the field together with the STM team. Note: Exceptions must be approved by the STM team leader and may result in the forfeiture of both travel and field reimbursement from the church.
4. Pay for the entire cost of airfare or transportation to the field upfront. Reimbursement for these costs will be handled after the trip according to the Missions Policy. Note: Exceptions will be considered if there is a financial hardship.
5. Attend all team training sessions and be present for any church send-off activities.
6. Adhere to biblical standards of conduct on the field.
7. Submit to the STM team leader(s) both during training preparation and on the field understanding that the team leader has been delegated to lead the team by church leadership.
8. Participate in any team sharing events and provide a written report of the STM within 30 days after the end of the trip, if requested.
